4th October 2022

Dear Parent / Carer,

You are all invited to our Harvest Festival Service which will take place on Monday 17th October starting at 9:15am in the Church. During the service, each class will perform either a song or a poem.

We would be grateful for any gifts you can provide for us and ask if you could please send them in on Friday, 14th or Monday, 17th October. As in previous years, your donations will go to the homeless. We would therefore appreciate any of the following items you may have in your cupboards at home:-

tea bags, coffee, hot chocolate, dried milk powder, sugar, squash tins of tuna, salmon, pilchards, mackerel tins of ravioli, macaroni cheese, hot dogs, meatballs, Irish stew etc tinned or packet soup tins of baked beans, spaghetti, peas, carrots, sweetcorn, potatoes. packets of rice, pasta, pasta sauces tins of rice pudding, fruit, custard breakfast cereals jars of jam, marmalade, honey, lemon curd biscuits

Many thanks for your continued support – it is very much appreciated.

Mr A J Laskey
Executive Headteacher
